

Bookings have progressed well with over 900 bed nights already booked and we have yet to open general bookings for any combination of nights, members and guests.

Although the weekends before and after it are fully booked, the week of 12th August has no (i.e. zero) people booked in currently. If you want a week in the best period to ski, then you should book for that week!